PINK COAT IN FORM.

There was a big gathering on hand at Hawthorne yesterday, those that braved the unseasonably cool weather being amply repaid by witnessing a splendid card of seven races, including the Emulation Stakes, a steeplechase over the full course. The race was marred somewhat by the falling of two of the six horses that started, although there was enough contention at the end to make the event interesting.

Saintly started out as if he was going to make a runaway race of the affair leading away off by himself up to the tenth jump, where he began to tire. Instead of jumping at this obstacle he ran over it and fell in a heap. Mazo then assumed command and held it by a fair margin up to the fourteenth brush where Dick Furber moved up fast and took the lead. He held it thereafter to the end winning in a drive by one length from Captain Conover, which came fast in the stretch compelling the rider on Furber to ride him out vigorously in the closing strides. Flaccus finished third fifteen lengths back of Captain Conover. Globe II. fell at the eleventh jump. He had been badly outrun up to the time of his falling.

The Pride and Miss Bennett put up a finish in the third race, a dash of six and a half furlongs, that roused the spectators to the keenest pitch of enthusiasm. The former won by a nose in one of the most vigorously contested finishes that have been seen hereabout in some time. The time hung out, 1:19, was equal to the track record made by Georgie September 16, 1899, and was within one-quarter of a second of the world's mark made by Sly last year at Harlem. Miss Bennett dashed to the front at flag dip closely followed by The Pride, with Goal Runner a fair third. Miss Bennett held her advantage clear up to opposite the paddock gate, where Winkfield brought The Pride up on even terms with her. Both Coburn and Winkfield now sat down and began to ride on their respective mounts with all the vigor and skill they possessed. The two horses, under heavy punishment, run stride for stride until about the last five strides, where The Pride, swerving slightly inward, got his head in front and held it there to the line. Goal Runner finished third six lengths away. He tired rapidly in the last eighth. Gonfalon moved up fast just before entering the last quarter, but fell away beaten when a furlong out. Obia showed speed for a half mile only.

The finish in the sixth race, a dash of six furlongs for two-year-olds, was almost as intensely exciting as the foregoing encounter, six of the field going under the wire together in close proximity. The winner proved to be Pat Dunne's good colt J. V. Kirby, which assumed the lead opposite the paddock gate and held it to the line, scoring by a short half length from South Trimble, which beat Rose Plume a head for second place. Pretorius led by a fair margin up to a furlong from home, where he propped badly and fell away beaten. J. V. Kirby laid in second position up to the point where Pretorius shot his bolt. South Trimble, as usual, closed with a rush after making up much stretch ground, and the same may be said of Rose Plume. Lucien Appleby was fading fast in the closing strides. St. Tammany was knocking at the door and showed that he is a consistent youngster. The Giver was dying away on the inside rail in the last twenty yards. It was the best bunched finish that has bobbed up at local tracks in some time.

Pink Coat, suddenly redivivus, showed his true mettle in the fifth race, a dash of one and one-eighth miles, by defeating a good field with consummate ease. He was backed heavily by a select few, who took a goodly sum from the ring. His quick improvement over his last showing may be referable to the hard condition of the track yesterday as in his effort on September 16, when the track was a shade slow he appeared to sprawl in the last eighth when he had appeared to be winning. The time, 1:52, hung out after the race, is a cracking good performance, considering the chilly condition of the weather, and is within a quarter of a second of the track mark. Odnor attempted to steal away from his field in the early part of the race, but Pink Coat kept uncomfortably close to him all the way and finally closed on him soon after entering the final quarter. Pink Coat easily showed his better class in the final eighth, moving away from Odnor with ease and winning in a canter by two lengths. Vulcan finished second, a half length before Strangest. The latter came fast next to the inside rail near the end, compelling Coburn to hustle out Vulcan to the limit for second money. Orontas, a Canadian horse of good class, finished a fair fourth. He bears watching and is sure to give a good account of himself when placed right. Odnor went clear up in the air when the pinch came, finishing last.

Monos after a successful whirl at the game in St. Louis, made his first appearance here in some time and signalized his return by taking the first race, a dash of one mile and seventy yards in a mild drive by a half length from Little Elkin. Coburn held the winner up well all the way and came away with him in the final eighth after Guy H. had given up his interest in the contest. Little Elkin came with a dash at the end after making up much ground throughout. With better racing luck he might have been returned the winner. He beat Russellas two and a half lengths for second place. Both Woodstick and Guy H. showed speed for six furlongs, but had enough just after turning for home.

Harry Preston had little trouble in annexing the purse of the second race to his owner's credit, winning in a canter by two and a half lengths from Fantasy which beat Helen Paxton one and a half lengths for second place. Dagmar, on past performances, should have been a contender in this race but for some unaccountable reason he could not get up a common gallop and was hopelessly beaten off at the end.

Baird took the last race of the day in a big gallop by three and a half lengths from Synia who beat Banish three for second place. The winner laid far out of the race up to the last quarter where he closed fast and easily ran past his field. Captain Hamm was right there for seven furlongs but fell away beaten when the rub came. Bard Knot was cut off badly just beyond the first quarter post but it hardly made any difference in the result as he could not run much after getting clear of his entanglement.

That good race horse The Devil has been reinstated and will probably be seen at one of the local tracks before the season ends.

An attractive card is offered for this afternoon, many good horses figuring in the entries. The Iroquois Stakes will bring an excellent field of good three-year-olds to the post and will serve to show just how good St. Marcos is.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

There will be no further attempts made to close the Delmar race track by legal process until October 9, when the Supreme Court, en banc, will consider the injunction issued by Judge Zachritz in the Circuit Court. The final hearing in the local court is docketed to come before Judge Ryan, but it will depend upon the Winner—B. c. by Laureate—La Tosca. Went to post at 2:15. At post 14 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Chucatanunda ran a fine race, outclassed the field and was lucky and well handled. Isia, off poorly, came through in bad going next to the rail and finished very strongly, running a remarkably good race. Musette is handicapped on a heavy track, but is very good. Belle of Lexington broke slowly and was pocketed. Her rider mishandled her to such an extent that she had no chance. Military and Zirl both ran fair races, but were outclassed.

Scratched—28295 Lady Sterling, 100; 27716 May W., 116. Chucatanunda, show, 1 to 2. Isia, show, 3 to 5. Musette, show, 4 to 5. Belle of Lexington, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—B. c. by The Bard—Equipoise. Went to post at 2:50. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. The Rhymor was lucky and well handled, but bored into Herbert all through the last furlong, nearly putting him over the fence. The latter was given a very bad ride and was best. Dublin was undoubtedly handicapped on the slow, cuppy track which prevailed and commenced to tire early, although he struggled home very gamely. The Amazon ran an extra fine race for her. Himself showed speed for five-eighths.

Scratched—(28380) Chucatanunda, 107; 28279 Black Dick, 95. The Rhymor, show, 3 to 5. Herbert, show, out. Dublin, show, out.

Winner—B. f. by Inspector B.—Early Morn. Went to post at 3:20. At post 11 minutes. Start fair. Won in a canter; second easily. Endurance by Right was for the first time recently extended to get away from Hanover Queen today, but had the field decisively beaten on the stretch turn, after which she only cantered to the end. Hanover Queen, fresh and good, was easily the best of the others and displayed brilliant speed, forcing the winner to her utmost in the first quarter. Rockwater closed a tremendous gap and was coming fast at the end. Early Eve ran a promising race and should win soon. She is a fine looker. Amicitia probably found the going too slow and holding and prefers a sloppy track. She was well up to the last furlong, where she tired. Pretoria ran a fast half and should improve greatly.

Scratched—28253 Flora Pomona, 119; 28327 Schwalbe, 119; (27838) Mary Worth, 114; 28394 Par Excellence, 107.

Winner—B. g. by Domino—Royal Gem. Went to post at 3:52. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. The Regent, in very light, liked the going, showed the most speed and finished very gamely. Wild Pirate ran in greatly improved form and finished strongly. Autolight was a good horse today, probably due to the track condition. Kilogram had all the steam taken out of him in racing with the winner and quit badly in the stretch. Louisville and the Musketeer were badly shut off on the first turn but the former ran a good race. The Musketeer is unmistakably off and his race was a bad one.

Scratched—28272 Carbuncle, 110; 28351 Kinnikinnick, 102. Overweights—Wild Pirate, 1 pound; The Musketeer, 2. The Regent, show, 1 to 2. Wild Pirate, show, 7 to 5. Autolight, show, 2 to 1. Kilogram, show, 2 to 5. Louisville, show, 7 to 10.

attitude of the Supreme Court, as the writ of prohibition ties up the Circuit Court in all its branches. If the writ is made permanent, as anticipated by the counsel for the Delmar track, racing will continue undisturbed to the end of the Fair Grounds meeting, October 31.

The plans of the Kinloch track remain in doubt. Efforts were made in the past week to induce the Western Jockey Club to reinstate outlaw horses for the benefit of the local track, but again proved a failure, and most of the few horses which participated in the recent brief meeting have been shipped away. Rumor has been current that the track would be reopened September 26, but it can not be verified, and it is hard to foresee any development which would change the situation in any degree from what it was during the progress of the recent meeting. The Fair Grounds could not be closed under the Zachritz injunction, as that applied only to the Delmar track, and the objection filed against the licenses under which booking is conducted there, that the notary public who took the acknowledgments operated under a commission effective only in St. Louis city, would, of course, not apply against the licenses issued for the Fair Grounds meeting.—St. Louis Sporting News.

The Westchester Racing Association at its fall meeting at Morris Park will hold a number of star events named for the most noted horses in the stables of W. C. Whitney and J. B. Haggin. On Friday, October 11, for instance, the Nastrutium Handicap for two-year-olds, at six and a half furlongs, will be run. Then on Monday, October 14, the Blue Girl Stakes for two-year-old fillies, maidens at the time of starting, five and a half furlongs, and the Yankee Handicap for two-year-olds, at six and a half furlongs, will be the features. On Monday, October 21, the Goldsmith Selling Stakes for two-year-olds, over the Eclipse course, will be decided, while on the same day the Water Color for two-year-olds and upward, at two miles, will be a further attraction.

Otto Wonderly, the little jockey who is practically a product of the Cincinnati race tracks, is rapidly becoming the idol of the eastern turf patrons. As a light-weight jockey he really is the best in the east today. The persistency with which he pushed long shots inside the money during the Sheephead Bay meeting has caused his services to be eagerly sought, and already the millionaire owners have an eye upon his contract. Wonderly is under contract for three years to John H. Carr, and it has been an uphill fight with the popular owner to make others believe he has the coming jockey. In the spring, when the little fellow was slighted in the matter of mounts at the metropolitan tracks, Mr. Carr noticed that the boy became disheartened, and he decided to take him to a more favorable clime. With a number of horses that he wished to dispose of in selling races Mr. Carr took the lad to Fort Erie, where the career of the jockey in the saddle was electrical. He easily led all the other boys at the Canadian track, and when he returned to New York his services were wanted. Mr. Whitney gave Wonderly several mounts during the week, and so successful has he become that Clarence Mackay approached Mr. Carr recently with an intimation that he would like to buy the jockey's release. It is not at all likely that Mr. Carr will part with the boy, for, while he has only a few horses in training at the present time, he has about a dozen yearlings that he is preparing for the spring campaign, among them being a Hamburg colt of much promise, and he will require the jockey's services probably as often as any other owner next year.

 Winner—B. c. by Inspector B.—Rosa Buckden.
 Went to post at 2:00. At post 10 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Monos, always well up, came away in the last eighth, but Coburn had to hustle him out to the last ounce to stall off Little Elkin's rush at the end. The latter was outrun up to the last quarter, from which point to the line he closed fast, making up much ground. Rasselas tired in the last sixteenth, but about ran his race. Hanswurst showed much improvement and will do to watch in his class in soft going. Artena gradually fell out of it after the first quarter had been run. She ran far below expectations. Bonnie Lissak was never a contender. She can do much better. Guy B. was right there for seven furlongs. Woodstick showed speed for six furlongs.
 Overweights—Artena, 1 pound; Little Elkin, 1; Rasselas, 3.

 Winner—Ch. g. by Parake—Lady Gay.
 Went to post at 2:40. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Harry Preston came away from his field in the last eighth and won as his rider pleased. Fantasy was easily the best of the others. Helen Paxton tired badly in the last eighth. Mattie Bazar showed speed for six furlongs. Dagmar's race was a joke. It should be completely ignored. It was a poor field all told.
 Corrected weights—Dagmar, 96.

 Winner—B. g. by Dundee—Beeswing.
 Went to post at 3:15. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won in a vigorous drive; second easily. The Pride laid along second to Miss Bennett up to the last sixteenth, where he moved up on even terms and the two fought it out desperately to the wire. It was just about a sixteenth farther than Miss Bennett likes to go. Goal Runner ran well, but was well spent by the time the last sixteenth had been reached. Gonfalon moved up fast when entering the stretch, but fell away beaten in the last quarter.
 Scratched—28342 Harry Herendeen, 94; 28174 Kunja, 97; 27518 Baronet, 104; 27191 Jim Winn, 94; 28322 Merito, 97; 28342 Georgie, 97.

 Winner—Br. c. by Fordham—Duchess Caroline.
 Went to post at 3:45. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Dick Furber laid away until shortly after the fourteenth jump where he was taken to the front, remaining there to the end although he had to be driven out to beat Captain Conover who closed fast in the stretch. The latter fenced cleanly and came with his usual rush at the end. Flacus had enough soon after taking the fourteenth jump and the same may be said of Mazo. Saintly was used too much in the early stages of the race. He tired about the tenth jump and fell heavily. Globe II., always outrun, fell at the eleventh jump but was remounted and finished the course.
 Overweights—Saintly, 1 pound.

 Winner—Br. h. by Leonatus—Alice Brand.
 Went to post at 4:20. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Pink Coat awoke with a start and ran one of his good races. He had speed to loan and came away in the last sixteenth with consummate ease. Vulcain finished strongly, but had to be ridden out to beat Strangest in the closing strides. The latter ran a good race, finishing fast next to the inside rail. Orontas tired badly in the last eighth. He bears watching, as he is right on edge now. Odnor quit badly when the pinch came. Pink Coat laid up too close to him to suit him.

Went to post at 4:50. Off at the first break to a good start. Won handily; next five driving. J. V. Kirby, always well up, finished strongly through the last sixteenth. He was cleverly ridden. South Trimble as usual came with a rush at the end after making up much ground in the final eighth. Rose Plume finished fast and strongly. He made up ground rapidly in the last eighth. Lucien Appley was tiring in the closing strides. St. Tammany ran right to the mark. Pretorius showed speed for five-eighths and then fell away beaten. The others were never contenders.

 Went to post at 5:15. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Baird laid way out of it to the head of the stretch, from where he closed up fast and ran past the other horses near the finish. Synia faltered in the last sixteenth, where she appeared all over a winner. Banish tired badly in the last eighth. Captain Hamm ran well for seven furlongs. Hard Knot was badly out of just after passing beyond the first quarter, but it hardly made any difference in the result, as he could not "run a little bit" thereafter. JOCKEYS HANDICAPPED.

DAILY RACING FORM will from now on publish each week a table of the rating of the jockeys riding at each track based on their performance in the saddle. The best riders at each track will be given the uniform rating of 100, and from that point the others will be graded down according to their estimated relative skill. For a difference of five points between the jockeys a corresponding five points change in the handicap figures assigned the horses in any race must be made. Only riders frequently in the saddle will be given a place in the tables. The following is the rating of the jockeys now riding over the various tracks:
